

Due to the sensitive nature of strategic planning for the 2011-2012 school year, our School Board meetings will be held in closed session until further notice. During this period of time please feel free to send email queries to vmsboard@vmc.net or drop correspondence in the School Board communication box in the school office. Thank you for your understanding.